

BARTLETT OFF FOR WASHINGTON

CONGRESSMAN WILL ENTER UPON HIS OFFICIAL CAREER.

Congressman George Bartlett leaves this morning for Washington, to enter upon his official career as the representative of this great state. Mr. Bartlett has been honored by his native state, and he in turn will honor his state in the halls of congress. He has been a success in everything that he has essayed; he will be a success in Washington. We will miss his pleasant personality, his strong character, his smiling face, his warm and earnest greeting; and we know that he will miss Tonopah, and all that the word conveys—friendship, love, home. To the many expressions of esteem that go out to him on his departure in his new career, we wish to add our sincere regards. Good bye, George. Good luck to you, and God bless you.

LASSEN TALKS OF BODIE'S BIG MINE

Alex C. Lassen, superintendent of the Standard Consolidated Gold Mining company of Bodie, is in Reno today en route from Bodie to San Francisco where he will meet with the directors of his company. He states that the Standard of Bodie is one of the fourteen dividend paying gold mining companies of the west and that his company has paid out $14,000,000 in dividends in the past twenty years. The next dividend will be for 10 cents a share.

This company works over averaging from $14 to $17 per ton and utilizes electrical power transmitted for fourteen miles to operate its mill and cyanide plant. The transmitter used for transmitting this power fourteen miles was the first ever installed in the United States.

The company is at present working seventeen men, but will soon increase its force.—Reno Gazette.

WEST'S MINSTRELS HAD BIG CROWD

The West minstrels had another crowded house, a greater house than that of the first night, and on that occasion the pavilion was packed. The minstrels made a hit, without a doubt, and Tonopah has demonstrated that even in hard times she can and will support a good show. The prices that were charged by the company, hard time prices, were gratefully acknowledged by the patrons.

The success of the minstrels means that Tonopah is going to have a batch of attractions which will be even higher in tone. Mr. Aylesworth has signed up a number of companies, and not a few of them depend for their coming to the desert on the success, financially, of the men in black, and "The Lieutenant and the Cowboy."

PERSONAL MENTION

Arthur Erbes arrived here yesterday from Reno.

James Freeburn has returned from Reville, and will leave in a few days for Tybo.

Congressman George Bartlett will leave this morning for Washington, to be gone until the end of spring.

S. C. Lowe, engineer of the gas company, left for San Francisco yesterday morning, leaving Tonopah for good.

Major Monteath left last evening in Donald Gillies' Simplex for Hot Creek. He expects to get back this morning.

W. W. Watterson, president of the Inyo county bank, was an arrival on yesterday's belated train, coming here from Bishop.

Jerry Rourke, general manager of the Greenwater and Death Valley Copper Mining company, has been in the city for several days.

Joseph Stenson, of Ryan and Stenson, will go down to Millers this morning in connection with the branch store of the firm there.

IS INVESTIGATING MAIL DELIVERY

SUPERINTENDENT OF RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE IS IN THE CITY.

A. H. Stephens, superintendent of the railway mail service, with headquarters at San Francisco, was here yesterday on his return from Manhattan, whither he had gone to investigate the mail delivery between here and the northern camp. The stage carrying the mails leaves here at 7 o'clock in the morning, which is before the arrival of the train, and as a result, the mails arrive at Manhattan twenty-two hours later than they might.

"As a result of my investigation," said Mr. Stephens last night, "I shall make a recommendation to the department that the stage for Manhattan does not leave here until after the arrival of the train from the north, providing that the train is on time. The train is due at ten minutes after 9 in the morning, and if it comes in at that hour, the trip can be made to Manhattan in the daylight; otherwise not."

"Owing to the conditions that exist in the winter time, we have sent the stage away at 7 in the morning. That schedule worked all right when we had the double train service, but with only the single train a day, a hardship is worked on the people of Manhattan. Still, we cannot be expected to hold the stage an indefinite time, for the reason that it would not be advisable or reasonable to have the stage going over the mountains in the night. The company has assured us that the trains will be brought in in future on time, and if this is carried out, the mail service difficulty will have been solved."

Mr. Stephens leaves for San Francisco this morning. He is one of the most active and efficient men in the railway service, and when there is anything to be done in his branch of the service, it is done instantly. He says that San Francisco is getting better all the time, and that it will not be long before the city will come in to her own.

"An earthquake could not stop her," said Mr. Stephens, "and a little financial flurry is not going to hold her in check."

WHEN SUMMER COMES AGAIN

MAN WHO PUNCHED JUDGE WILL SERVE FIVE MONTHS IN LIEU OF $300 FINE.

It cost Fred Davis $300 and costs for the privilege of punching Judge Chambers of Manhattan in the nose; in lieu of the $300, in consequence of the financial stringency, he went to jail for five months. He will be with us when summer comes again.

His defense was that he couldn't help pasting the learned wearer of the ermine; he just couldn't. His honor of Manhattan, he said kept in jail for five days, while his honor in question, was trying out a new jag. Then when he did hear his case, he held him to appear before the grand jury, which honorable body threw him and his case out of court. This was his vindication.

Judge Brissell, in the absence of Judge Chambers of Manhattan, upheld the dignity of the ermine of the northern camp, and soaked the pugilistic defacer three hun' and costs.

If Davis had appeared before Chambers he would have got three years and life. There are compensations for all our ills. It is going to be a hard winter, Freddy, and you may as well be inside as out.—Ta-ta.

HAS SECURED SPACIOUS QUARTERS

The Tonopah-Manhattan Promotion committee has secured spacious quarters in the State Bank and Trust company building, and Secretary Force is now engaged in fitting them up. The interest which has developed in the meetings of the committee has necessitated the move.

THE LIMIT.

"He's no good at an argument, is he? Not at all convincing."

"Well, I should say not. Why, that man couldn't convince a woman that she was pretty!"—Cleveland Leader.

The world's rice crop in 1935 aggregated 170,000,000,000 pounds. The great bulk of this enormous yield was produced and consumed by the people of Asia, the Chinese taking the lead both in production and consumption.

HIGHLY PLEASED WITH OUTLOOK

CAL BROUGHER VISITS BOTH THE BELMONT AND MIDWAY.

Cal Brougher, the newly appointed director of the Belmont Mining company, and one of the largest stockholders, has been here since last Wednesday morning. In company with W. J. Douglass and A. T. Johnson, the latter formerly superintendent of the Tonopah Mining company, Mr. Brougher spent two days in an inspection of the mine, and was highly pleased with the outlook, as well as the present condition of the property. Mr. Brougher was here about a month ago, and went through the mine at that time in company with Mr. Douglass.

He submitted to an interview with the Bonanza at the time, but refrained from expressing himself as forcibly as he felt, not being an official of the company. Since then there have been rumors to the effect that there is no ore in the lower levels. Mr. Brougher is now a director in the company; so he feels no qualms in telling of what his inspection showed him.

"I have heard of those rumors," said he, "and am in a position to deny them if anybody is. The mine is looking even better than it was when I was here a month ago. From the 900-foot level they have sunk the east winze to a depth of fifty or sixty feet, all of which is in ore, having no foot or hanging wall; and all the ore is going to the mill. On the 1000-foot level they are crosscutting, but have not gone far enough to the north to encounter the ore body."

"We went down to the Belmont mill, and the conditions there are particularly gratifying. We are running forty stamps right along, and the extraction is highly satisfactory. We are still a little short of power, but this deficiency, it is promised, will be remedied soon."

Mr. Brougher is president of the Midway company, and the mine has always been one of his special weaknesses. He went through it, and was as well pleased with its appearance as he was with that of the Belmont.

"I never saw the mine when it was looking so good," said he, "and I think more of it than ever I did. On the upper levels, we have a large amount of ore exposed. We are shipping at the present time about 200 tons a week to the Butters' plant at Virginia City. On the 800-foot level, about 500 feet north of the shaft, we have a large body of low grade ore, about forty feet in width. We are making arrangements for a hoist, with which we intend to sink and prospect this vein thoroughly. I think more of the lower country now than I ever did before, and it will surprise me very much if we do not develop a few Comstocks in this camp. Conditions, physically, could not be more encouraging than they are at the present time."

TELLS OF CODY AND MRS. GOULD

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Howard Gould's attorney today took the deposition of Miss Helen Mar, who is known on the stage in England as the "original American story teller." Her testimony, which was taken in secret before a referee for use in the Gould separation suit, is said to pertain to Mrs. Gould's relations with "Buffalo Bill" Cody before her marriage.

After her direct examination Miss Mar was cross-examined at length by Mrs. Gould's lawyer, Shearn, who made her tell about her girlhood, when her name was Helen White, her married life with George Brown, her experience as Helen Mar and her marriage to Rohan Clensy, her present husband.

Shearn brought out that she and her husband have been living on an unusually expensive scale since their last arrival in New York, the inference being that they are supplied with money by some rich person.

Miss Mar says she and Miss Clemmons were very close friends and exchanged confidences. "Katherine told me everything about Colonel Cody," she states. "All their friends knew there was much more than business relations between them."

SAYS BANKS NEED AN INVESTIGATION

(By Associated Press.)

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 23.—In an interview with an Associated Press representative today Governor Gillette discussed the necessity for an investigation of banks, trust companies and banking laws of the state. He stated that the commission would not begin work until late next summer and declared that he would work with the commission and take a personal interest in the investigation. "It is high time that the banks, trust corporations and banking laws of this state be investigated," said the governor. "Honest bankers doing a legitimate, conservative banking business demand such an investigation. They have nothing to fear. They desire that the laws governing banks be passed."

The governor declared that the cry that it will hurt business, that it will disturb conditions, and still further shake confidence and create uneasiness is not well founded.

COURT IGNORES HARTJE'S CHARGES

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who was sued for divorce by her husband, F. Augustus Hartje, the Pittsburgh millionaire, won a complete victory in the Pennsylvania superior court today, when that tribunal affirmed in its entirety the decision of the Allegheny county court, which refused to grant Hartje a divorce.

The petitions filed by Hartje attorneys in the superior court asking them to reopen the case on the ground of newly discovered evidence were denied. The petitions to the court to reopen the case were based on letters alleged to have been written by Mrs. Hartje to Thomas Madine, the former coachman, who was named as a correspondent by Hartje.

ST. LOUIS TAKES $12,000,000.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—At a meeting of all St. Louis bankers today it was decided to take $12,000,000 of the government's treasury certificates, provided the money paid for this circulating medium be redeposited in the banks taking the scrip. This the treasury department has already signified its intention of doing.

BIG REDUCTION SALE

Ryan and Stenson have been holding a reduction sale through the past week, and it has been so successful, that the sale will be continued through all of next week. Money may be scarce and the banks refuse to advance it, but there can always be dug money for bargains.

A reduction is like the stock market in this respect. There comes a slump and everybody is wiped out; but stocks continue to decline, and it is astonishing how quickly and from what unexpected sources the money can be again accumulated. Particularly is this the case when the stocks are known to be possessed of value.

This has been the case in the reduction sale. The goods are all marked at their original prices, and it is from that figure that the reduction of 25 per cent is made. No wonder that Ryan and Stenson caught the crowds of shoppers last week, and the experience will be repeated the coming week. In times like these, a reduction in the price of necessities is appreciated.
